

Name of your photograph:

Who is in this photograph? What can we tell about this person or group based on this photograph?

Where was the photograph taken? How can you tell? How does the location contribute to the sense of holiness or spirituality?

What is happening in this photograph? How is prayer, study, or contemplation represented in this photograph, and what does this activity lend to the holy or spiritual nature of the photograph?

What specific objects would you identify as “holy” or “spiritual” in this photograph?

If you were in this photograph, what might it be like to experience holiness or spirituality in that place?